ABOUT ME

I'm looking forward to challenge myself in a working environment and learn and improve my skills facing the obstacles I'm sure I will find.

I'm a resolute, ambitious but humble, sociable but sometimes solitary, sunny but often serious and focused person. These are the adjectives that suit me the best and that I think are good strengths. Being resolute assures that I'm not giving up until I don't reach my goals, my ambition makes me set high objectives but my humility always reminds me that I'll always have to learn from everything and everyone. My sociability makes me able to work in group but I'm also able to walk alone. I'm sunny and this allows me to take the best from every situation and last but not least I'm able to make choices and select my priorities.
